POWER ABUSED.

Furuseth Delivers Address on Subject of Injunctions.

CHICAGO, Dec. 2.—"If the abuse of power practiced by the courts through the injunction process is not stopped now by your calm judgment and thought, your children will stop it with their blood," was the declaration of Andrew Furuseth of San Francisco at the meeting of the Chicago Federation of Labor, yesterday. Furuseth served in the legislative committee of the American Federation of Labor at Washington for a number of years, and is regarded as the best informed labor man in the country on the subject of injunction.

"This question of court injunctions in labor disputes is the most important before the working men and women of the country today," he said. "It arises from a false conception of the meaning of the word property. The injunction originally was intended to protect property and the courts have gradually extended their jurisdiction, until today they regard labor as property.

"There is only one way to end the injunction abuse through the legislation, and that is for every workingman to disregard political affiliations and vote against the men in office who refuse to do as you wish them to do."

TO CURE A COUGH OR COLD.

The following formula is a never failing remedy for coughs or colds:

Two ounces of glycerine, one-half ounce of Concentrated oil of pine, one half pint good whiskey, mix and shake thoroughly each time and use in doses of a teaspoonful to a tablespoonful every four hours.

This, if followed up, will cure any cough that is curable or break up an acute cold in twenty-four hours. The ingredients all can be gotten at any drug store.

Concentrated oil of pine comes put up for medicinal uses only in half ounce vials in tin screw-top cases designed to protect it from heat and light. Other oils of pine are insoluble and are likely to produce nausea and cannot give the desired results.

ELIMINATES RIVALS.

Candidacy of Bryan Overshadows Other Aspirants.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.—Out of 76 Democratic senators and representatives polled in Washington by the New York World, 44 declare unequivocally that the recent statement of Wm. J. Bryan that he is a candidate for the democratic nomination for the presidency eliminates all other candidates. Practically all of them believe that he should run on a conservative platform, although there is a wide difference in opinion as to what that platform should be. Of those who do not consider that the Bryan is the only man, one, Senator Hansdell, of Louisiana, is definite in naming a candidate. He comes out flatfooted for Governor Johnson, of Minnesota.
